

At CHAOS in October we explored the story of Joseph.

Joseph got thrown in a pit so we got our hands covered in mud and raced to see who could find all the things he may have lost in the mud.

Joseph was sold into slavery by his mean brothers. Sonia and Rebecca had to battle out of the ropes that the 'evil' Stef had tied around them.

Joseph was given the gift of solving the puzzle of dreams. We tried to solve the puzzles in the race.

Lots of us remembered the bit about Joseph's colourful coat so we made colourful fruit kebabs. The marshmallow held the fruit in place and was clearly the best thing to eat!

Joseph had a roller coaster life and we don't hear what he thought during it. But at the end we glimpse his steadfast faith when he looks back and says 'despite these tough times I can see God was with me every step of the way'. God is still in the business of rescuing his people from the messy pits of our life. It is through faith in Jesus that we can be free and be restored in our relationship with God and others.

This was the video we watched https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=MfGiW\_SSp1c

See you next month Nov 21st at 3.30pm when we start to feel festive!

Want to know more about CHAOS? Want to discover the freedom there is in trusting Jesus?

Contact Jenny—revjennybrown@yahoo.co.uk